

Liquor-Dealers, Driven from Charlottesville, Reappear in Orange and Gordonsville.

BOYDTON, VA., September 2.—Daniel Goode, colored, had a terrible experience here this morning, which came near causing him to lose his life. He was driving a hired livery horse from Chase City along the streets of this town, when the line got under the animal's tail. The horse began running and kicking. Goode kept him in the

S. S. S. is the only safe and reliable cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It is purely vegetable, made entirely from healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and in addition to curing this vile disorder, S. S. S. builds up every part of the system. Mercury and potash cannot cure the trouble; they can only mask it in the system for awhile, and when they are left off the disease returns, usually, in worse form than before, and the patient finds he has damaged his health with these strong minerals, which disease the delicate lining of the stomach, affect the bowels, produce chronic dyspepsia and often set up Mercurial Rheumatism. It will not do to trifle with a disease so powerful as Contagious Blood Poison, for every day it remains in the blood it is progressing toward a dangerous stage, and will in the end get beyond the control of any treatment. S. S. S. cures blood poison in the right way, it goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of the virus. No bad results are ever experienced from the use of S. S. S. It is gentle and pleasant in its action, and forty years of cures warrant the statement that S. S. S. is not only a safe but a certain treatment. Home treatment books on this disease and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

Mr. Richard Resigns.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., September 2.—W. H. Richards, Jr., who has been chief clerk of the Piedmont, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, of this city, for the past twenty years has resigned, his resignation to take effect to-day.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., September 12.—Wistar W. Jenkins has instituted force proceedings in the Corporation Court here from his wife, Dorothy Jenkins, on the grounds of wilful desertion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) By the time the "Times-Dispatch" has been so much interested here over the G. A. R. opposition to the use in Washington city schools of "Stories from American History," by Miss Edna Henry Lee Turpin, Miss Turpin lives about 15 miles from Washington, and her father's fine old home, which she owns. She is the only daughter of Edward Henry Turpin, who was a wealthy planter of Mecklenburg county. Her mother, Petronilla Lee, was a daughter of R. H. Lee, of Mecklenburg county, who was a descendant of Hancock Lee. Miss Turpin's uncles, Ambrose Sharpe Lee and Henderson

Lewis Lee, were prominent lawyer in this section.

When G. A. R. criticisms were brought to Miss Turpin's notice she responded that she had offered to retract any statement in her book as evidence is submitted to disprove it. Thus far no evidence has been submitted to her.

Lee was offered and refused the command of the Union army is made in a letter written by him, February 1867, to Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland. It is inconceivable that General Lee, who was a descendant of Hancock Lee, was so ignorant of his family history, and that he was so truthfully, misstated the facts in order to aggrandize himself.
